The examples used are not meant as a complete list, but rather as a guideline to judge the seriousness of certain infractions.

a) Minor Offenses

- Examples:
- late in reporting to work.
 - leaving the job early.
 - poor performance and poor attitude on the job.

An infraction in this category results in a verbal warning by the immediate supervisor or foreman. A second infraction within a three month period will be dealt with by written notice to the employee. A third infraction within the three month period will result in termination.

b) Serious Offenses

- Examples:
- carelessness or negligence causing inexcusable damage to Municipal property.
 - unauthorized absence from the job

An infraction in this category results in a written notice to the employee. A second infraction within three months will lead to one week suspension (no pay). A third infraction within a three month period will lead to the termination of the employee.

c) Very Serious Offense

- Examples;
- unable to work because of alcohol or drug abuse.
 - refusing to carry out assigned duties.
 - deliberate destruction or abuse of Municipal property.
 - conduct endangering the safety of self or others.
 - fighting on the job.
 - absent for two or more working days without authorization.

An infraction in this category will result in a verbal and written notice. A second infraction within a three month period will result in a written notice to seek help. A third infraction will lead to termination.

d) Offenses Leading to Automatic Discharge

- Examples:
- being in possession of or consuming an alcoholic beverage on the job.
 - being in possession of or taking illegal drugs while on the job.
 - theft of Municipal property.

An infraction in this category will result in automatic discharge of the employee.

In the event of a grievance, the employee will present a written document clearly stating the incident of grievance and the expected action to his/her immediate supervisor. If satisfactory action is not taken by the supervisor within five working days of the date of the letter, the employee will present a written document with a copy of the original grievance to Personnel Committee.

When the conduct of an employee warrants any disciplinary action, the employee shall be informed of the reasons and shall have the opportunity to recourse.
